- Address of the damaged primary residence.
- Description of the damage.
- Information about insurance coverage.
- A current contact telephone number.
- An address where they can receive mail.
- Bank account and routing numbers for direct deposit of funds.

Businesses and residents can go to sba.gov/disaster or call SBA's Disaster Assistance Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955. Deaf or hard of hearing may call 800-877-8339.

The County of Ventura is coordinating the application process for the California Office of Emergency Services Consolidated Debris Removal Program (CalRecycle) for Ventura County Woolsey and Hill fire victims. The deadline to apply for the program is January 14, 2019.

The required Right-of-Entry forms are available at VenturaCountyRecovers.org. Hard copies of the application forms can also be picked up at the County Government Center. Completed applications may be submitted in-person between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. at the location below. County staff will be available to answer your questions and guide you through the submittal process. You can also leave a message at the County's Woolsey Fire information line: 805-654-2432 or contact us by email at EHDWoolsey-HillFire@ventura.org.

- Ventura County Government Center, 800 S. Victoria Ave. Ventura, Hall of Administration, Environmental Health Division.

There is no cost to the property owner for the debris removal – except for any applicable insurance reimbursement – but residents need to provide Right-of-Entry forms, insurance information and other important paperwork to allow CalRecycle to clean up their property.
